

THE LOCAL CLUBS IN LUCK.

WARD'S MEN WERE THE ONLY ONES WHO DID NOT WIN EVERYTHING.

President Byrne and His Team Had Quite a Successful Outing at Washington Park—Cleveland was Not in It at the Polo Grounds—The Boston (N. L.) Club Drew Two Games to Chicago—News and Notes from the Field.

The final holiday games for this season were played yesterday. Each of the teams played two games, with one exception. The scores follow:

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

(P. M., first game, New York, 6; Cleveland, 6. (P. M., second game, New York, 5; Cleve- land, 1).

(P. M., Brooklyn, 10; Pittsburgh, 9.

(P. M., first game, Brooklyn, 8; Pitts- burgh, 2).

(P. M., second game, Brooklyn, 8; Pitts- burgh, 2).

(A. M., Philadelphia, 2; Cincinnati, 1.

(P. M., Cincinnati, 3; Philadelphia, 2.

(A. M., Chicago, 15; Boston, 11.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE.

(A. M., New York, 7; Buffalo, 5.

(P. M., New York, 10; Buffalo, 7.

(P. M., first game, Chicago, 13; Brook- lyne, 2).

(P. M., second game, Brooklyn, 7; Chi- cago, 2).

(A. M., Pittsburgh, 7; Philadelphia, 6.

(P. M., Pittsburgh, 9; Philadelphia, 6.

(A. M., Boston, 11; Cleveland, 2.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

(P. M., first game, Columbus, 7; Baltimore, 6.

(P. M., second game, Columbus, 6; Balti- more, 6).

(A. M., H. Chester, 12; Louisville, 6.

(P. M., H. Chester, 10; Louisville, 6.

(A. M., Brooklyn, 11; Syracuse, 10.

(P. M., Athletics, 7; St. Louis, 2.

The National League.

THE RECORD.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Chicago 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—FIRST GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—SECOND GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—THIRD GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—FOURTH GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—FIFTH GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—SIXTH GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—SEVENTH GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—EIGHTH GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52 57

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 Philadelphia 20 27 43 52 57

Two VICTORIES FOR THE NEW YORK LEAGUE MEN.

The New York and Cleveland National League teams played two games to-day at the Polo grounds in the presence of one of the largest crowds of the season. Both were won by the home team. It was a beautiful day, and the players seemed to feel inspired to do their best, the home team especially so, because of the unusually large attendance. The fielding was something marvellous, and the pitching extraordinary. Their weakness at the bat proved disastrous to the Clevelands. Many times did they have men all ready to score. Of the visitors' virtues their first baseman was handy with the stick. In the first game he was the only one to hit his single, easily getting two clean hits. The hitting in the second game was far less developed on his shoulders, his record being a single and two doubles. Unfortunately, he was left on a base every time. Davis, Burnett, and Hornung accomplished some difficult running catches. Glasscock failed to keep up his great work of Saturday. Although making several great stops, he marred them by tumbling several easy ones.

The only run scored by the visitors in both games was by the third baseman in the first game. Smalley hit an easy fly to Tiernan, which he graciously muffed. Nobody was out. Smalley came to the plate with a beautiful swing, but was let down by a wild pitch. Smalley scored. With Zimmer on second base, Delaney, Beatin, and Gilks struck out. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; CLEVELAND (N. L.), 0.—NINTH GAME.

Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.; Wm. Zorn, P.; Chas. W. Peet, C.

Brown, J. S. 22 27 43 52 57 New York 20 27 43 52